

This branch is closing – but we're still here to help

Our Rothbury branch is closing on Friday 2 November 2018.

Branch closure feedback, and alternative ways to bank

Sharing branch closure feedback

We're now nearing the closure of the Rothbury branch of Barclays. Our first booklet explained why the branch is closing, and gave information on other banking services that we hope will be convenient for you.

We do understand that the decision to close a branch affects different communities in different ways, so we've spoken to people in your community to listen to their concerns. We wanted to find out how your community, and particular groups within it, could be affected when the branch closes, and what we could do to help people through the transition from using the branch with alternative ways to carry out their banking requirements.

There are still many ways to do your banking, including in person at another nearby branch, at your local Post Office or over the phone on 0345 7 345 345². You can also go online to barclays.co.uk/waystobank to learn about your other options. Read more about this on page 6.

If you still have any questions or concerns about these changes, now or in the future, then please feel free to get in touch with us by:

Speaking to us in any of our nearby branches

Contacting Don Crozier, your Community Banking Director for Northumberland & Durham.

We contacted the following groups:

MP:

Anne-Marie Trevelyan

Local council:

Northumberland County Council : Cllr Steven Bridgett

Customers:

A number of customers who regularly use the branch

We asked each of the groups 3 questions – here's what they said:

In your opinion, what's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on your local community?

You said to us:

There are some concerns that the branch closure may have an impact on the way customers are able to bank and also some concerns were raised about the loss of the cash machine. There were also concerns about the potential impact the closure may have on the town, and in particular on local trade and businesses.

We'd like to say:

We understand the concerns about the closure – and we'd like to reassure everyone that, before deciding to close, we looked very carefully at how the branch is used. We've seen a general fall in customers coming to this branch, and many customers already use nearby branches and online or telephone banking.

To keep a community focus and to ensure trade stays in the local area, everyday banking can be done at the Post Office. We're helping our customers understand which transactions they can do there, offering them support through this transition, and we remain available to the residents of Rothbury to show them the many ways they can bank, if required.

We are actively exploring the possibility of retaining an ATM after the branch closes, to support the community, and once we have confirmed the arrangements we will share the details locally.

What's the biggest effect that this branch closing will have on customers of the branch?

You said to us:

There were concerns about customers who depend on the branch – for example, those who find it difficult to travel further, and local businesses who rely on the branch for their cash transactions. There were also concerns about what would happen to staff at the branch after it closes.

We'd like to say:

We're speaking individually to those customers who are most likely to be affected by the closure, and helping them feel more confident with alternative ways to bank. This includes speaking to someone in person through Telephone Banking. We're also making sure our personal and business customers are familiar with using their local Post Office, and we're accompanying them there if they're happy for us to do so.

We're speaking to business customers who regularly use the branch and letting them know about other ways to draw and pay in cash, including Barclays Collect, our cash collection service.

For anyone who's able to travel, the nearest branches are in Alnwick and Morpeth. We understand it's not always convenient to travel, so we've been offering support from our Digital Eagles in our branch, to help customers adapt to new ways of banking – so they don't need to use a branch as often.

Our staff will all be working at nearby branches after we close, so customers will be able to see familiar faces at those other branches.

What alternative ways to bank do you believe would help people adapt to the change?

You said to us:

The closure means customers will need help getting used to new banking methods, particularly those who may have concerns about banking online.

We'd like to say:

We're encouraging customers to do their everyday banking in other ways, including mobile and online banking – and telephone banking for those who prefer to speak to someone.

We've run 'Tea and Teach' events at the branch to show customers other ways to bank, including how they can set up regular payments, pay in cheques and how to use Pingit or Barclays Mobile Banking on their mobile phones. We've also shown customers how to order cards and PINs and we're also helping everyone remain vigilant against fraud. Support is also available through our telephone and online services.

Other things that could help

Banking at the Post Office is available to both personal and business customers – where they can withdraw and pay in cash, and check their balances using a debit card and PIN. Customers can also pay in cash using a pre-printed paying-in slip.

Cheques can be deposited at the Post Office – customers will need a pre-printed paying-in slip, along with a cheque deposit envelope.

- Cheque deposit envelopes – we have supplies of envelopes in the Rothbury branch, so please visit us before it closes to pick some up. Otherwise, call us on 0800 169 3091* and we'll pop some in the post
- Pre-printed paying-in slips – are at the back of a Barclays cheque book. They can also be ordered at any branch or by calling 0800 169 3091*

Please allow an extra 2 days for cheques or cash deposited using a pre-printed paying-in slip to reach your Barclays accounts.

*Lines are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
